badge pick-up for non-attending friend?

While I am still attending YaoiCon, two of my friends unfortunately can't make it. They've already pre-reg'ed, and were hoping that I could at least pick up their badges for them.

Would it be enough for me to present thier Registration Confirmation letters?

No. You cannot pickup someone else's badge for them. If they can't attend but would like their badge, have them email me at registration @ yaoicon.com and I'll look into mailing it out to them after the convention is over.

Thank you,

Saya
