How do you know if your video was accepted?

I entered one into the AMV contest, but I have yet to hear if it was accepted or not. How do I find out? I'd like to know before the con so I can invite people to come and see it.

Typically the finalists are seen the day of the contest. Mostly this is due to innumerable time constraints on my part that keep me from getting everything together till towards the last minute. However, things are slightly smoother this year.

If all goes as planned expect the finalists to be posted here in this forum on Wed.

*blink* You mean your not going to be judging them on the plane to y-con this year? (Grin)
