
view winning AMVs?

I couldn't make it to the AMV contest... it sounds like there were a LOT of great entries... I was hoping someone here had links to somewhere the winning vids are hosted? (being an AC fan, I'd especially love to see Advent Fear)

Thanks!

Has anyone else had a problem downloading "i am NOT gay"? I wonder if there's something wrong with the way the file was saved, because it doesn't even match the creator's description (or else I can't understand it). Is it because I have a mac?

I have viewed it on youtube as well, but 1) it's not the same as having my own copy, and 2) I can't even tell if that version is the old version or the revised version, let alone which one was shown at yaoicon.
