What is it that you're looking to 'get published' exactly. All I see are some character work-ups. Is this an RP game your creating? Is there an artist involved? Do you have complete scripted story for your characters if it's a comic?

:o

Not trying to troll, just asking.

Be careful with the name "Shaffenhausen" because in German it sounds like your saying "sheep trousers." Which is something like Schaffen Hosen.
