Well... Reiko Urashima didn't sing the original, at least. I wasn't aware that she'd done a cover of it. ^^;

You are referring to the opening for Utena, right?

Masami Okui sang it. ^^:

Finding it is a little harder... I don't think it's too kosher to link download sites here (as we have to keep Y-con safe and legal ^_^) but if you try searching for Utena Soundtrack or Utena OST you may have better luck. :]

I'd say that your bst bet would be to get a CD yourself with the song, and rip the MP3 for your use. A quick check indicates that it's available at a few places; the best chance for you might actually be ordering it from CDJapan, as there was a budget compilation of Utena music with that song for about 1500 yen.
