

---

Which name do I need to register in?

Posted by Big_Mac - 2007/03/02 11:51

---

This may be a stupid question but I'll ask it anyway...

In the directions it says to give your full name, but then only asks for your official first and last name. So do you only want our official first and last name only (because on our ID's it gives our full name)?

=====

Re: Which name do I need to register in?

Posted by Saya - 2007/03/05 08:22

---

This may be a stupid question but I'll ask it anyway...

In the directions it says to give your full name, but then only asks for your official first and last name. So do you only want our official first and last name only (because on our ID's it gives our full name)?

Put your full name down to be safe. If that is too long, put down your full first and last name.

Example:

Let's say a attendee's name is Summer Skye Lollipop Sunshine Margaret Smith Johnson and that is what is on her driver's license. Obviously that name is way too long to put down on a form. Let's say this attendee actually goes by "Maggie." This is what I'd want her to put down on the reg form:

Summer Johnson

or

Summer Skye Margaret Johnson

or

Summer Margaret Johnson

or

Summer Margaret Smith Johnson

Does this make sense? DO NOT PUT DOWN YOUR NICKNAME. e.g. "Maggie" instead of "Margaret."

Saya

=====

Re: Which name do I need to register in?

Posted by Big_Mac - 2007/03/05 12:15

---

This may be a stupid question but I'll ask it anyway...

In the directions it says to give your full name, but then only asks for your official first and last name. So do you only want our official first and last name only (because on our ID's it gives our full name)?

Put your full name down to be safe. If that is too long, put down your full first and last name.

Example:

Let's say a attendee's name is Summer Skye Lollipop Sunshine Margaret Smith Johnson. Obviously that name is way too long to put down on a form. Let's say this attendee actually goes by "Maggie." This is what I'd want her to put down on the reg form:

Summer Johnson

or

Summer Skye Margaret Johnson

or

Summer Margaret Johnson

or

Summer Margaret Smith Johnson

Does this make sense? DO NOT PUT DOWN YOUR NICKNAME. e.g. "Maggie" instead of "Margaret."

Saya

---

Ok, I'll just put my full legal first and full legal last name (like in example #1). I'm going to mail my "packet" to you tomorrow morning, so hopefully you'll get it around Thursday. Do you e-mail us letting us know when you receive our papers?

Thank you for your help,

~Big Mac~

---

=====

Re: Which name do I need to register in?

Posted by Saya - 2007/03/05 12:33

---

This may be a stupid question but I'll ask it anyway...

In the directions it says to give your full name, but then only asks for your official first and last name. So do you only want our official first and last name only (because on our ID's it gives our full name)?
Put your full name down to be safe. If that is too long, put down your full first and last name.

Example:

Let's say a attendee's name is Summer Skye Lollipop Sunshine Margaret Smith Johnson. Obviously that name is way too long to put down on a form. Let's say this attendee actually goes by "Maggie." This is what I'd want her to put down on the reg form:

Summer Johnson

or

Summer Skye Margaret Johnson

or

Summer Margaret Johnson

or

Summer Margaret Smith Johnson

Does this make sense? DO NOT PUT DOWN YOUR NICKNAME. e.g. "Maggie" instead of "Margaret."

Saya

Ok, I'll just put my full legal first and full legal last name (like in example #1). I'm going to mail my "packet" to you tomorrow morning, so hopefully you'll get it around Thursday. Do you e-mail us letting us know when you receive our papers?

Thank you for your help,

~Big Mac~

You will receive two emails from me. One is a submission confirmation email that you should print out and mail with your registration packet and the second is a final confirmation email that is sent when you are fully registered on the condition that your check clears. Both these emails will come from notify @quickbase.com. I look forward to getting you registered.

Thank you,

Saya

---

=====

Re: Which name do I need to register in?

Posted by Big_Mac - 2007/03/15 17:51

---

How long does it normally take to receive the second e-mail?

---

---

Re: Which name do I need to register in?

Posted by rev.tylerg - 2007/03/18 16:22

---

I just got mine today. I sent my stuff in about a Month and 10 days ago. Could be less than that for you though.

Good Luck.

=====

Re: Which name do I need to register in?

Posted by Saya - 2007/03/18 17:11

---

How long does it normally take to receive the second e-mail?

I've been very busy with Tales of Anime so it's taken me a little longer to register folks for Yaoi-Con. You should have received a final confirmation email today.

Thank you,
Saya

=====

Re: Which name do I need to register in?

Posted by Big_Mac - 2007/03/18 17:42

---

YAY!!! I got my confirmation email! :D

Thank you Saya!!

=====

Re: Which name do I need to register in?

Posted by J_Chén - 2007/03/27 18:37

---

Since we need to use our ID to pick up the badge, does that mean our badge name should be the same on our ID?

=====

Re: Which name do I need to register in?

Posted by Saya - 2007/04/02 11:49

---

Since we need to use our ID to pick up the badge, does that mean our badge name should be the same on our ID?

No. Just make sure the field that says "First Name" and "Last Name" on the online registration form has the same exact name as it does on the photo ID you'll be using to register and pick up your badge on site. "Badge Name" is what will be printed on your badge.

Thank you,
Saya

=====

Re: Which name do I need to register in?

Posted by J_Chén - 2007/04/03 05:06

---

Good, thank you. Now I could mail the registration form without worries. :)

=====