Tanoshii Bishounen - Bishie Fun. A multi-fandom, cross-fandom, whoever-the-hell-you-wanna-be RP group currently seeking new members, following several disappearing for various reasons.

It's primarily pro-yaoi/shounen-ai, but nothing is frowned upon, and female characters are just as welcome as males despite the title :)

Please take a look at the 'Concept' and 'Background and Info' sections, and if you like what you see, please join up! Those of us who're still there are very friendly and accomodating, and there are several characters waiting in the wings to start RPing with you - just grab the character template sheet from the Rules section and get creating! :D
