
Badge Name

Posted by LadyJane - 2006/05/30 14:43

Hello all! I know this is a really lame, stupid question, but I'd rather look lame and stupid over the Internet than face-to-face :oops: . Anyhoo, this will be my first Yaoi con, actually first con ever, and I was wondering what the deal is with the Badge name. Is this your real name you want to show or is it a cover name? Can it be anything, within reason of course? And could I get a few examples of what yous others are using? I know it's stupid and pointless, but I have to know. Thanks a bunch in advance! ^_^

I believe you can use any name you'd like. This year, I'm going as "Neon", but a few years ago, I went by my name and before that, a nickname (so horrible, that I won't even mention ><)

I have a question that falls under the same subject but is not related to the question above...so here I go...

Can I change my badge name after I've received the "Registration Complete" e-mail?

I was just using my first name as the badge name, but then I registered on this forum and wanted to use my forum handle as the badge name.

My legal first name is just too boring...:D

Anyway please let me know...Thanks a lot in advance!

I would suggest dropping an email to registration@yaoicon.com with this question.
