..how long will I have to wait in line to register at the con? I remember for anime boston I was in line for like 3 hours, I really don't want to do that again. When should I get in line, what should I do? Etc etc etc. Uhhhh I'll kill my post office. Thanks.

Well... I've never, EVER seen Y-con's reg line take three hours. I've gone from 'back' to 'done' in under thirty minutes, for the most part, at each time. Basically, Y-con's reg staff is equal size to many larger cons. Plus, ours is more fun by virtue of common interest in smut. :]

Ah thank god. That was not an experience I was looking forward to hah. At anime boston I was stuck btween a pair of REALLY bad loveless cosplayers who were like 14 and an even worse Mana cosplayer. Thus I'm scared of registration lines now haha.

Goodness, I hope it doesn't take more than 3 hours to get through our registration line. If you've pre-registered, picking up your badge should be a breeze. We've implemented some new protocols for at-con registration so it should be faster than it was last year. Please let me know how long it takes you to get through registration.

The bloke himself is actually pretty funny, and full credit to him for doing it and sticking with it knowing the reaction - I'd just rather he did it the other side of the room T_T
