
Yaoi-Con Shoppe: Is it alive?

Posted by Jen526 - 2007/06/27 06:33

Does anyone know if the con shop is supposed to be working?

I tried to order something several months ago, and tried again recently. Both times, the site seemed to register my request ok, but I never heard anything back.

I tried emailing the contact address for the shop, and haven't heard anything back from that, either.

FYI, please check my response regarding the Jadou sets in the other forum thread. They're not a part of the Yaoi-Con Shoppe, but handled off site.

It looks like the email forwarding for the shoppe didn't do its job to let our order processor know orders were waiting. She's going to check on the shoppe and emails now and get back with you as soon as she can. Our apologies for the delay.
