
About the panels...

A quick question to anyone who can answer... When and how do those of us who have panels find out where/when/how long our panels are? For Purposes of coming adequately prepared, I'd love a bit of info... If I'm going to have to just roll with it, it's okay, but yeah, if info is available or will be available soon, I'd love to know! ^_^

We're working on the con schedule -- hopefully we'll have it up before too much longer.

Cool! I can wait a bit longer.
Thanks for repying! I really appreciate it. ^_^

I should also add that as a general rule panels are an hour long unless you asked for something longer....
