Ok regarding ticketing.

I can get a reserve ticket for each entrant and one guest. Please e-mail me offlist with your real name, amv psuedonym and amv entry name. (All so I can crosscheck with the list I posted so nobody tries to sneak tickets for someone else).

I'll let you know the procedure to claim them once I get it everything confirmed.

Ok here's the ticket info for all AMV creators.

I got tickets set aside for those of you who contacted me regarding as such (plus one guest ticket) here's the info.

On Saturday at 12:00 the video room will be playing the Yaoi Dreams MEP Project. I will be in the room for that event and after the project is over (it runs approx. 30 min) I'll distribute your tickets to the AMV contest. I'll have a checklist with me so please just tell me your name on the list and I'll hand you your tickets.

This offer is only to the AMV creators who submitted AMVs into the contest. General attendees please see the regular ticketing policy for events.

Also one other bit of housekeeping:

If for some reason the time of that event moves then I will be in front of the video room at 12:30 till 12:45 to hand out the tickets anyway (I will not do this if the project maintains the tiem it is allotted for.)
