
AMV Event Special Presentation at Yaoi-con

Posted by thewiredknight - 2007/10/24 10:29

Just a special announcement;

The Yaoi-Dreams MEP (Multi editor Project) will be premiering this year in Yaoi-con's video room on Saturday. The project is a series of music videos made by editors using "straight" shows of anime and making shounen-ai/yaoi themed videos. Hence it is a series of AMVs depicting popular slash couples in anime.

The project runs half an hour.

Just a friendly heads up on that so you can look for it in your programs at the convention.

I'm sure Savvy_style said it plenty of times, but I wanted to add my thanks to you and the Yaoi-Con staff for allowing us to present the Yaoi Dream Puppets MEP at the convention. I heard from several people directly how much they enjoyed watching it and it was great seeing it on a big screen!

Thanks again, Sean!
