
Buttons/Pins/Badges

Hi everyone! waves

I'm sure I met up with some of you at Yaoicon and some of you were lucky enough to have get free buttons/pins/badges we had at our swap meet table. Several of you asked where we got them and I pimped out my friends website - so here it is again for those who asked me to post it and for anyone else who's interested. Their website is "under construction" right now but check them out on Ebay.

They've got all sorts of cool pins! :D

Dang, I wish I had stopped by your table. I have bought from this site before (FAKE and Kizuna pins) and they are VERY cute. I need to get some more, I think, though :wink:

I wish you had too! To be honest we didn't have a lot, I think maybe about 30 or so and they went quick - once people realized they were free. I also gave away ones I was wearing...sniffle I miss my Okane ga Nai pins sooooo I know I'll have to order more from them! The last set she sent me were of Trinity Blood, Bleach and Hero Heel. LOVED THEM!

Yeah, a bump and a pimp -

Just wanted to let you know I went on ebay and bought more pins from your friend. She (he?) is a real sweetie! She sent me an extra pin! She did that the last time I ordered pins from her, too, sent a really nice (:shock:) Kizuna pin as a bonus. I recommend the site for anyone interested in purchasing pins. Not just anime, but some jrock and other bands, too. Last post November 8th? I ordered just after that and got the pins sometime this week while I was away.
