GOT THAT FESTIVE FEELING?

Happy Holidays and best wishes from the staff of Yaoi-Con! See you on the other side of 2008. Many thank you to Tammy Lee, who contributed the lovely art. You can visit Tammy Lee's art site at <http://www.tammy-lee.com>.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS: YAOI-CON 2008

For all you early planners, get out those red pens and those brand new 2008 calendars and get ready to mark the dates and location for Yaoi-Con 2008! We'll be back at the Marriott San Mateo-San Francisco Airport the weekend of September 26-28, 2008. Please do not call the hotel and try to book rooms at this time. Once we have the 2008 Web site up and running, we will have information about booking rooms.

OUT WITH THE OLD, IN WITH THE NEW!

As part of our 2008 preparations, we are upgrading the system behind our Web site and forum. Because of this, both will be down for a short period of time. We recommend that you contact your forum buddies now for alternate contact info during this downtime.
