Question about submitting panel ideas

I submitted a few panel ideas a few days ago and I was wondering, when should I be expecting a response from them? I've held these panels at other cons before where they've gone over well and if they're approved of, it'd be great to be able to hold them here.:cheer:

*grin* It can take some time. I think that my panel ideas were answered midsummer, if I recall correctly. The staff for Y-con has a HUGE amount of preparation to undergo for con.

Good luck! :D

I was wondering, when does the con schedule normally get posted?
