videogame cosplay?

I know the usual Final Fantasy and Kingdom Hearts are bound to be present. Will there be any cosplayers from other games as well? Any horror games, Japanese boylove games, obscure rpg's, oldschool fighters?

It'd be fun to have a general game gathering, all titles included. What would you guys think? Could be potentially epic.

My current cosplay plans: Gray, from Romancing Saga

A few of my friends are cosplaying from the same title.

I'm hopefully gonna have Konoe from the BL game Lamento, and Maito (Might) from the BL game Silver Chaos, all things going to plan ^_^ I'm also preeeeetty certain there's gonna be a Pamu (Pam, Silver Chaos) cosplayer there too, and possibly Adonis (Silver Chaos) too, though I can't say for certain since they're being done by other people!

I planned to cosplay Souha from Fanatica (my favorite BL game), but it may have to wait until next year at this rate. _-_ I have many BL/Otome game costumes in mind for the future though.

Due to my dismay and lack of funds It looks like I will be cosplaying as one of the girls from Fire Emblem >_< my lil brother begged me to do so and since he's giving me monies for it I guess I can at least cosplay as something he wants. >_< I'm too nice of a sister.

I'm going to be Nero from Devil May Cry. I really hope to see a good showing for video game cosplayers. Any other DMC peeps? I'm going to be going to the con by myself and hope to see a Dante there too!
