
Times - Help!

Posted by Krazy - 2008/05/01 14:29

Does anyone know about what time the con starts on the first day and ends on the last? I'm trying to buy plane tickets and can't find the info anywhere. Very important, so if you know, please respond!

Nothing's definite yet as to the schedule this far in advance. Generally (and I'm not a staffer or a volunteer), things tend to start in the early evening on Friday and end in the early evening on Sunday if that'll help nail down travel times for you. :)

Thanks for the help, but thankfully the director for Y-C got back to me quickly and let me know pre-reg badge pick-up begins around 1pm which is what I was needing to know.
