Yaoi-Con Shoppe: Is it working?

Hi,
does anybody know, if the yaoi-con shoppe is working?
I tried to order some items at the shop about 3-4 weeks ago. But I never got any confirmation email or something like that.
Contacting them via email did not work either.

I found a threat that says that the shop hat a email-forwarding problem last year. Maybe this happened again?

Thanks for your help.

Hi -- the Shoppe isn't actively linked into the site because it hasn't been upgraded for our new system. Could you tell me what link you used to order from?

If there's something you want to order, please email the director and ask if the items are still available.

Hi Titania,
the link I was using is <http://www.yaoicon.com/yaoi-shoppe/>
but I don't remember where I found it, google, I think.
Will there be a new shop-system in the future? That would be great.

I will try to email the director.

Thank you for your help.

Unfortunately, there's no ETA for the updated shop. We'll be sure to announce it when it's back up and running, though.
