
Suite: $100 Th-Mon at Marriott

Posted by AndaliLoire - 2008/02/24 21:52

Hello there!

I have two suites, with two queen beds, and a fold out couch. $100 per person for Thurs-Mon. Please IM with questions.

I'm interested in staying in the room but at this time it's only a 50/50 chance of coming to Yaoi Con. It all depends on job/funds at the time. I would like to stay in your room, since it is from Thurs-Mon, but is this the official con hotel?

It is the official con hotel - I'm sorry I didn't see your post! How long until you know?

My friend Carina and I are hoping to come to yaoi-con this year. We were hoping to find some people to share a hotel with, as its too expensive to get a hotel on our own. I am male (just a heads-up as that is a concern for some). We are both 22 year old students. We have attended cons before, from Anime Expo to Sakura Con, but are new to yaoi-con.

Yeah. Right now I'm in a weird situation with my room. I have one, but people keep dropping so there are two of us that are definitely going and one more who's iffy. If you have room for the two of us then I'm going to make the one who hasn't decided if she can actually go make a decision. If she can't go then we'll need a room. I should be able to find out on Friday.

Thanks,
DL

That's awesome. What kind of setup is it (number of people per room, beds, genders, that kind of thing)? I'm going to be talking to both of my friends tomorrow and I want to be able to give them details. If Katami agrees then at least the two of us will join you and I'll see what KD has to say.
