
Room for 1 or 2 more at Marriott

Okay, we may possibly need one or two more people to fill up our room. The two people who were gonna room with us aren't looking too good D:

We've got a suite at the con hotel reserved for four people on Friday and Saturday night. It's got one big bed (which my roommate and I will be sharing) and a fold-out couch bed. So it's either that, or the floor.

Right now for sure it's me and my roommate - both female. We're looking for guys or girls who need a room and will promise to be clean and, y'know, bathe (my roommate had a bad experience with messy roommates, so we'd like for that not to happen again). Orientation doesn't matter as long as you keep it outside our room, please >3>

So, yeah, just drop me a line here, or IM me on AIM (cykotyks) or Y!IM (cykotyks.cyrus), ask any questions, and hopefully we can work something out =]
