Hi, My name is India Jackson. I went for the early bird special and accidentally forgot to sign the damn check...hangs head Gomen... But Right after my registration file was sent back I sent my $50 check to you, making sure to sign it! I haven't had the funds taken out or had a conformation email or regular mail. I'm trying to make sure that everything went through. It will be really unfair if I have to pay like the full price when I've been trying to give you monies this whole time! I feel really dumb and I just want my ticket!! cries please.... won't someone look into this...

Uh oh... hey, dont' feel dumb ^^ i usused to do stuff like that, when you're doing registration and other important things, make sure to go through a checklist of thigns before you send it off next time ^^ ~Hugs~ For now I think you should look into who runs registration and chat with them ^^
