Photography Services Thread

so theoretically, if I were to put up a photography thread offering shoots... would it go in this forum or the "pimping station"?

I was wondering because the rules vary for different forums, say Fanime board vs Cosplay.com board.

This is by no means a thread going "I'm offering photoshoots!" - just asking the question if I decide to do some at Y-con...

Thanks in advance for the responses!

If it doesn't belong here, they'll just move it for you ^^ No big sweat, we don't yell ap people for posting in the wrong area...at least I've never been yelled at and I've done it before;
