
Yaoi Fantasy VII returns - we need your ideas!

Posted by Yahriel - 2008/02/22 09:20

Yaoi Fantasy VII: Fandom's Core II, sequel to last year's Fandom's Core, is officially back for this year! Woot!

We're not panel-virgins anymore, but we're still not very experienced. innocent-uke-unknowingly-about-to-be-violated pose So we need your help. Pretty please with Sephiroth on top?

I know there were a lot of you there last year (standing room only at one point =O), so let's here some ideas on what you want to discuss. Comms to join? Must-reads? A pairing you secretly love and why it makes sense (to the mind of a yaoi fan, of course)? Is Crisis Core!Zack canonically bisexual?

Let's save most of the actual discussion for the panel, but go ahead and toss ideas around and build off each other. I'm sure someone has something worth being quoted at the panel. XD

In other news:

Unfortunately one of our panelists cannot attend the con this year due to the change of con date... so, we're looking for additional panelists. If you want to help us host, please send me a PM! (or AIM, or email)

Sankyuu in advance! =D See you all at the panel! (hopefully)

Panelists so far:

Zack (me)

Genesis

and two tentative Clouds

Copy of what, Crisis Core? imo, Japanese version is going to be better... have you heard the US dubs? x_X

^^ s'ok. I've got 3 people now, and hopefully a forth. ^^

Any ideas for discussion topics?

I know, but I can't read Japanese. ;_;; Do you need the Japan version psp in order to play japanese games?

I can't either. :B But translation sites like www.silenttweak.com exist. And no, you don't. Game UMDs are region-free.

Well, even having said that, I still preordered the US version. Both preorders >_>; not obsessive, really also totally doesn't have the Crisis Core poster from Gamestop

pokes topic

That's the great thing about most hand held game platforms, they don't need anything to play Japanese games I have my Doko demo Kanji quiz for my Ds ^^...hmmml should get the Japanese game, I could play it and say I'm studying Japanese this summer...

I missed this panel before. What did you cover?

Just talked about Yaoi as related to FFXIII, and how borderline canon some of it is.

Panel's kinda up in the air atm, though. Our group broke up, and I might be starting school in the next few months, so I may not even be going.
Nothing for SURE yet, though.

Ah, too bad! I'm not a big FFVII fan and might have been interested in seeing what makes others interested in it BESIDES the yaoi-ness :laugh: :laugh:

o_O This is YAOIcon. What do you expect us to talk about?
I couldn't host a FFVII Yaoi panel at a regular con... it's too niche. But at YaoiCon... =3

Oh well, your choice.

Had a thought, you could do a chart on the different characters pairing off with each other and who would be seme/uke depending on who's with who, and discussions on why someone could be seme with one person and uke with another. Just a thought. Sorry. :lol:

I know nothing about FFVII except I watched the movie that came out because of it. All I know is that every single guy looks like a bishie in the movie. I wish I could join your panel, but all I know is that I am my usual Gryffindor self and plenty of yaoi pairings from other shows.

Gryffindor is the best house EVAR!
